Toastmasters Leadership & Communication Conference comes to Downtown Chicago

Event is open to the public

Chicago, IL, March 29, 2019—District 103 Toastmasters, <https://www.d103tm.org/conference/> invites residents to its Annual Leadership & Communication Conference being held April 12-13, at the Embassy Suites, 511 North Columbus Drive, Chicago, IL. The day-and-a-half event features Speech Contests, Educational Workshops, Keynote Speeches, and a Reception with Live Entertainment by RÖYAL-- not to mention an excellent opportunity to enjoy the downtown energy of Sweet Home Chicago.

The Conference is focused on communication skills for today's leader & professional. Meaningful interaction & effective leadership is more relevant than ever before. The digital age has created a demand for skilled communicators.

The Featured Keynote Speakers Include:

- Ramona J. Smith; Author, Teacher, 2018 World Champion of Public Speaking
- Pres Vasilev; Sales Expert, Executive Speech Coach, 2013 World Champion of Public Speaking
- Johnny Campbell; Organizational Change Expert, Accredited Speaker, Founder of Rise Up & Win

Members and guests will enjoy participating in leadership round table discussions, learning valuable techniques for delivering feedback, and gaining a new perspective into the funny side of leadership.

District 103 Toastmasters provides a supportive and positive environment where members & guests have the opportunity to develop their communication and leadership skills. This event is open to the public and we welcome your voice, we look forward to hearing you.
