

Meet Our Keynote Speakers

Ramona J. Smith, is the 2018 World Champion of Public Speaking. She is an educator, speaker, author, blogger and poet. As an award-winning internationally known public speaker, Ramona's captivating speeches inspire audiences around the world. She is a dynamic powerhouse on stage, and her ability to connect with an audience is unmatched. She earned her bachelor's degree in Public Relations with a minor in Marketing, graduating Magna Cum Laude from the prestigious Baldwin Wallace University in northeast Ohio. Ramona is the mother of miracle boy Ryan, and they reside in the Magnolia City, Houston, Texas.

Pres Vasilev is the 2013 World Champion of Public Speaking. He has more than ten years of sales experience in both door-to-door and inside sales. For more than a decade, he has studied, researched, written, and spoken on self-improvement, speaking, storytelling, and selling. Pres speaks to corporate and public audiences on the subject of Successful Selling with Storytelling™. He combines his insights from the sales trenches with his storytelling expertise to equip his global audiences with practical strategies for greater influence and sales success.